Mascalzone

La parola mascalzone è solitamente riferita ad azioni disoneste o spregevoli, originariamente essa apparteneva ad un registro di parole derivanti da un'alta e ricca società alfabetizzata che utilizzava questi termini in maniera discriminatoria. Nel corso degli anni il termine assume una chiave di lettura più ironica per cui la sua interpretazione si riferisce a situazioni scherzose, divertenti e infantili. I nostri Mascalzoni sono una serie di oggetti che trovano nella contemporanea semplificazione stilistica, nella qualità realizzativa e nelle dimensioni contenute la massima espressione della loro personalità. Abitano luoghi, ricordi e materia tradizionalmente associati alla tipologia dello spazio architettonico, evocano echi di memorie trascorse, rêverie del nostro passato.

The word rascal usually refers to dishonest or despicable actions. It originally belonged to a range of words resulting from a rich and literate high society that used these terms with discriminatory intentions. Over the years, the term took on an ironic nuance and is now used in reference to comical, funny and childish situations. Our Rascals are a series of objects that best express their personality in the contemporary artistic simplification, in the quality of the their production and in the restrained dimensions. They find their place in spaces, memories and matters traditionally associated to the architectonic space; they evoke echoes of past memories and rêveries.

La scimmia di Kay Bojesen: The monkey of Kay Bojesen: Kay Bojesens Affe: Le singe de Kay Bojesen:

Kay Bojesen esplorò le possibilità offerte dal legno. Un esempio ne è la collezione di animali in legno, divenuta un classico del design scandinavo. Gli animali in legno di Bojesen sono amati ancora oggi da bambini e adulti così come lo erano negli anni '50, l'epoca in cui vennero creati e divennero noti al pubblico. La scimmia, l'orso e l'elefante non sono solo personaggi in legno, ma hanno una loro vita. Kay Bojesen desiderava creare personaggi in legno con un cuore ed è riuscito perfettamente nel suo intento. Gli animali sono simpatici e ispiratori perfetti come compagni di giochi per i bambini ma anche come soprammobili per decorare la casa.

Kay Bojesen explored the potentiality of wood. This collection of wooden animals that has become a classic of Scandinavian design, stands as an example. Kids and adults still love Bojesen's wooden animals today as they did in the 50s, when they were created and became known to the public. The monkey, the bear and the elephant are not just wooden objects; they are alive, in their way. Kay Bojesen succeeded in creating wooden characters with a heart; his animals are funny and inspiring, perfect playing companions for the children but also decorative objects to wonderfully decorate the house.

Kay Bojesen erforschte die Möglichkeiten, welche das Holz anbietet. Ein Beispiel dafür ist die Sammlung von Holztieren, welche zu einem Klassiker des skandinavischen Designs wurde. Bojesen Holztiere werden heute noch von Kindern und Erwachsenen geliebt, so wie sie in den 50er Jahren geliebt wurden, zu derjenigen Zeit in der sie geschaffen und in der Öffentlichkeit bekannt wurden. Der Affe, der Bär und der Elefant sind nicht nur Figuren aus Holz, sondern sie haben ihr eigenes Leben. Kay Bojesen wollte Holztiere mit einem Herzen schaffen und er hat sein Ziel bestens erreicht. Die Tiere sind lustig und inspirierend – perfekt als Spielgenossen für Kinder sowie für die Hausdekoration.

Kay Bojesen a exploré les diverses possibilités offertes par le bois. Un exemple en est la collection d'animaux en bois, devenue un classique du design scandinave. Les enfants et les adultes d'aujourd'hui aiment les animaux en bois de Kay Bojesen tout autant que les aimaient leurs aînés des années 50, lorsqu'ils furent créés et devinrent célèbres auprès du public. Le singe, l'ours et l'éléphant ne sont pas seulement des personnages en bois, mais ils ont leur propre vie. Kay Bojesen souhaitait créer des personnages en bois ayant un cœur et il a parfaitement su mener à bien ce projet. Les animaux sont sympathiques et sont des source d'inspiration, parfaits compagnons de jeux pour les enfants mais dignes aussi de figurer au titre de d'objets décoratifs pour la maison.

Singer. Sedia per visite brevi di Bruno Munari:

Ideata nel lontano 1945, essa abbina una struttura in legno intarsiato con un sedile in alluminio inclinato a 45°. Questa combinazione, tradizionale e ironica al tempo stesso fornisce una destabilizzazione risposta alla vita che corre veloce, alla frenesia che ruba il tempo. La seduta, dove in realtà è impossibile accomodarsi, è divenuto un elemento decorativo che evoca la presenza iconica di una sedia, senza esserlo.

Singer. Chair for short visits by Bruno Munari:

Designed in the far 1945, it features the characteristics of a classic chair (walnut wood with inlays and aluminium saddle). Nonetheless, the seat inclined by 45° represents a destabilising response to our life on the run, to the time-stealing frenzy. Describe by Munari himself as a chair for very short visits, this seat appears to be deformed in perspective and its inclination rules out any chance of long-lasting comfort. Daring in his proportions, this decorative element evokes the iconic presence of a chair, without ever being it.

Singer. Stuhl für kurze Besuche von Bruno Munari:

Der Stuhl für kurze Besuch, welcher im fernen 1945 entworfen wurde, ist eine ironische Antwort vom genialen Munari auf die Aussicht eines hektischen Lebens. Er besitzt die Eigenschaften eines klassischen Stuhls (aus Nußbaum mit Intarsien und eine Sitzfläche aus Aluminium), stellt aber durch seinen bis zu 45° geneigten Sitz, eine destabilisierende Antwort auf das Leben dar, welches schnell verläuft, eine Raserei die Zeit vergeudet. Von Munari selbst als Stuhl für sehr kurze Besuche definiert, zeigt sich der Stuhl als Sitz in einer Version deformierter Perspektive, wo es in Wirklichkeit aufgrund der Neigung unmöglich ist sich zu setzen. Die gewagten Proportionen machen ihn zu einem dekorativen Element, welches die ikonische Präsenz eines Stuhls hervorruft, ohne einen zu sein.

Singer. Chaise pour courtes visites de Bruno Munari:

Projetée en 1945, elle se présente comme une chaise classique (en noyer marqueté et assise en aluminium) mais présente une assise inclinée à 45 degrés, déstabilisante réponse à la vie qui va toujours plus vite, à la frénésie qui nous vole le temps. Définie par Munari lui même comme une chaise pour courtes visites, c'est une chaise prospectivement déformée ou il est en réalité impossible de s'accomoder à cause de l'inclination de l'assise. De proportions audacieuses, elle devient un élément décoratif qui évoque la présence iconique d'une chaise, sans en être une.

Eames House Bird:

Non molti sanno che non furono gli Eames a disegnare la statuette, ma essa è parte della loro collezione di oggetti. Si tratta infatti di un "attira-corvi" che i due acquistarono nel 1940 da un artigiano dell'Illinois, Charles Perdw, che realizzava richiami e trappole in legno dalle forme semplici, ma intrisi di folklore e di tradizione, per salvare i raccolti dei contadini. Sin dai primi anni '50 l'insolito manufatto campeggiava nel salotto degli Eames ad accogliere ospiti e amici, ma fu soltanto quando Charles Eames lo incluse nel suo scatto pubblicitario per le celebri Eames Wire Chairs che acquistò la sua fama; come se si trovasse nel suo habitat, in una foresta di ferro dalle forme geometriche, la silhouette "piena" del volatile, giustapposta ai "vuoti" formati dalla griglia di sedie, raccolse inaspettato consenso e clamore.

Only few people know that it wasn't the Eames to design the statuette, but it is just part of their collection. It is in fact a bird-trap that the couple bought in 1940 from Charles Perdw, an artisan from Illinois, who used to build simply shaped, wooden traps pervaded with folklore and tradition in order to save the farmers harvests. Since the beginning of the 50s, this unusual artefact stood in the Eames' living room to welcome guests and friends. It is only after Charles Eames included it in his photograph for the famous Eames Wire Chairs that it became a celebrity. The "full" silhouette of the bird, in contrast with the "voids" shaped by the grid of chairs, as if it was flying in his own habitat, a geometrical, iron forest, was successful beyond any expectation.

Viele wissen nicht, dass nicht die Eames die Statuette entwarfen, sondern dass sie ein Stück ihrer Gegenstandensammlung ist. Sie ist in der Tat eine "Krähenattrappe", welche die beiden 1940 von einem Handwerker aus Illinois, Namens Charles Perdw erwarben und welcher angeblich Lockrufe und Fallen aus Holz, mit einfachen Formen, doch voller Folklore und Tradition herstellte um die Ernte der Bauern zu retten. Seit den frühen 50er Jahren, stand das ungewöhnliche Artefakt im Wohnzimmer der Eames um Gäste und Freunde zu begrüßen. Aber nur als Charles Eames sie in seiner Werbung für die berühmten Eames Wire Chairs abbildete, kam sie zu ihrem Ruhm; so als ob sie sich in einem geometrischförmigen Stahlwald in ihrem Lebensraum befinden würde. Die prächtige Silhouette des Vogels, erregte zwischen den leeren Zwischenräumen der Stuhlmetalle unerwarteten Konsens und Aufsehen.

Peu de gens savent que ce ne furent pas les Eames qui dessinèrent la statuette, mais qu'elle faisait partie de leur collection d'objets. Il s'agit en effet d'un "leurre pour corbeaux" que le couple acheta en 1940 chez un artisan de l'Illinois, Charles Perdw, qui confectionnait des appâts et des pièges en bois, de formes simples, mais empreintes de folklore et de tradition, conçues pour sauvegarder les récoltes des paysans. Dès le début des années 50, l'étrange objet trônait dans le salon des Eames, accueillant les hôtes et les amis, mais ce fut seulement lorsque Charles Eames l'inclut dans les photos publicitaires pour les célèbres Eames Wire Chairs qu'il acquit sa célébrité; il semblait avoir trouvé son habitat naturel, dans une forêt de fer aux formes géométriques, et la silhouette "en plein" de l'oiseau sur les "vides" formés par les grilles des chaises, connut un succès retentissant.

Sella. Sgabello di Achille e Pier Giacomo Castiglioni:

Progettato nel 1957, Sella è una seduta "sempre in piedi", pensata come sgabello per telefono, un punto d'appoggio per brevi soste. Esempio del ready made più volte adottato dai fratelli Castiglioni, la seduta è costituita dalla sella in cuoio nero di una bicicletta da corsa. Questa, regolabile in altezza, è sostenuta da un tubolare in acciaio verniciato di rosa inserito in un basamento in fusione di ghisa dal diametro di 33 cm. La particolare forma a mezza sfera della base è bilanciata in modo tale da mantenere il corpo in un costante equilibrio dinamico.

Sella. Stool from Achille and Pier Giacomo Castiglioni:

Designed in 1957, Saddle is an "always standing" seat, designed as a phone-calling stool, as a support for short breaks. The seat is made of a black leather saddle from a racing bike, classical example of the ready-made often used by the Castiglioni brothers. The height of the saddle is adjustable, being topped on a pink-painted steel tube inserted in a cast-iron base 33 cm large in diameter. Its particular, half-spherical shape is poised in order to keep the body in a constant, dynamic balance.

Sella. Hocker von Achille und Pier Giacomo Castiglioni:

Sella wurde 1957 als ein Sattel - ein beträchtliches "immer stehendes" Sitzen - entworfen, welcher als Hocker für Telefongespräche oder als eine Sitzgelegenheit für kurze Pausen ausgedacht wurde. Als Beispiel für das mehrmals von den Brüdern Castiglioni benutzte Ready-made, besteht dieser Sitz aus einem schwarzen, ledernen Fahrradsattel eines Rennrades. Der Sattel ist in der Höhe verstellbar und auf einem rosa lackierten Stahlrohr aufgesetzt, welches in einem Sockel aus Gusseisen von 33 cm Durchmesser eingefügt ist. Die besondere Halbkugelform des Sockels ist so ausgewogen, dass der Körper in einem ständigen dynamischen Gleichgewicht aufrecht gehalten ist.

Sella. Tabouret d'Achille et Pier Giacomo Castiglioni:

Projeté en 1957, Sella est un siège "toujours debout", pensé comme un tabouret destiné au téléphone, un point d'appui pour des pauses brèves. Exemple du ready made souvent décliné par les frères Castiglioni, le siège est constitué de la selle en cuir noir d'une bicyclette de course. Cette dernière, de hauteur réglable, est soutenue par un tube en acier peint en rose inséré dans une base en fonte de 33 cm de diamètre. La forme particulière en demi sphère est conçue pour maintenir le corps en parfait équilibre dynamique.

Il modo di interagire con un ambiente fisico è strutturato in base a schemi, nella maggior parte dei casi molto semplici, che noi trasferiamo alla sfera della percezione e del pensiero. La nostra mente tuttavia, riconosce anche immagini strutturalmente complesse, nelle quali sono evidenti pieghe, torsioni, deformazioni, che permettono di attingere ad un linguaggio poetico come il paradosso, assunto in questa circostanza, come filtro attraverso il quale rileggere la tradizione ceramica senza negarla, anzi, evitando di cadere in facili estremismi e boriose provocazioni. Una serie di oggetti, concepiti nel rispetto della materia che li compone, omaggiano la tradizione con la loro semplicità ma, contemporaneamente, mostrano un inquietudine di fondo, dovuta alle contraddizioni immanenti statico-dinamico, pesante-leggero, pieno-vuoto, che si palesano al mutare del punto di vista.

The way we interact with our physical environment is structured around schemes-for the most part very simple schemes, that we transfer to the spheres of perception and thought. Our mind are quite capable of recognizing even structurally complex images in which folds, twists and distortions are evident. The mind can link to poetic linguistic devices such as a paradox. Under these circumstances the paradox acts as the filter through which we can re-examine the ceramics tradition without denying it, and more importantly, avoiding the pitfall of easy extremes and pompous provocations. A series of objects, conceived as respectful of the materials from which they are created, that honor tradition with their simplicity but, at the same time, display a basic restlessness, the result of their intrinsic static/dynamic, light/heavy, full/empty contradictions which seem to be in interplay depending on viewpoint.

Il modo di interagire con un ambiente fisico è strutturato in base a schemi, nella maggior parte dei casi molto semplici, che noi trasferiamo alla sfera della percezione e del pensiero. La nostra mente tuttavia, riconosce anche immagini strutturalmente complesse, nelle quali sono evidenti pieghe, torsioni, deformazioni, che permettono di attingere ad un linguaggio poetico come il paradosso, assunto in questa circostanza, come filtro attraverso il quale rileggere la tradizione ceramica senza negarla, anzi, evitando di cadere in facili estremismi e boriose provocazioni. Una serie di oggetti, concepiti nel rispetto della materia che li compone, omaggiano la tradizione con la loro semplicità ma, contemporaneamente, mostrano un inquietudine di fondo, dovuta alle contraddizioni immanenti statico-dinamico, pesante-leggero, pieno-vuoto, che si palesano al mutare del punto di vista.

The way we interact with our physical environment is structured around schemes-for the most part very simple schemes, that we transfer to the spheres of perception and thought. Our mind are quite capable of recognizing even structurally complex images in which folds, twists and distortions are evident. The mind can link to poetic linguistic devices such as a paradox. Under these circumstances the paradox acts as the filter through which we can re-examine the ceramics tradition without denying it, and more importantly, avoiding the pitfall of easy extremes and pompous provocations. A series of objects, conceived as respectful of the materials from which they are created, that honor tradition with their simplicity but, at the same time, display a basic restlessness, the result of their intrinsic static/dynamic, light/heavy, full/empty contradictions which seem to be in interplay depending on viewpoint.

Foglia Small

Forme emozionali per interpretare suggestioni, idee e vitalità legate al paesaggio mediterraneo e alla sua classicità.
Una collezione dettata dalla volontà di recuperare valori quali design, storia e qualità, per meglio caratterizzare l'ambiente bagno.
E' questa la sintesi del progetto, dare nuovi impulsi all'equilibrio tra forma e contenuto, tra natura e spirito.
Il sanitario Foglia trova nella forma originale nuova ispirazione naturale, reinventando la sua funzione di elemento corporeo destinato a confrontarsi con i caratteri dell'acqua e della luce.
Gli oggetti si integrano come valore aggiunto al bagno e diventano parte attiva dello scenario, non più solo "accessori" di contorno, ma forme vive, strumenti estetici delegati a comunicare, rendendo vivo uno spazio di natura individuale.

Foglia Large [Scarico traslato Adjustable flush system]

La collezione si arricchisce di una importante innovazione tecnologica che ne permette l'installazione senza dovere modificare gli impianti idraulici esistenti. I vecchi impianti riportano uno scarico con distanza centro foro parete tra i 60 e i 220 mm., il nostro vaso senza doverne modificare il suo piacevole aspetto estetico, può essere installato in una di queste situazioni mediante l'utilizzo di 3 diverse curve tecniche; anche l'ingresso dell'acqua può essere agevolato mediante l'utilizzo di un raccordo eccentrico. Il bidet grazie ad un ampliamento dello spazio tra le sue pareti posteriori permette di ospitare al suo interno i vecchi impianti idraulici nascondendoli alla vista senza dover sostenere spese per il rifacimento degli stessi. Queste soluzioni sono quindi ideali per la ristrutturazione di vecchi bagni, senza rinunciare alla bellezza del design.

The bidet, thanks to a widening of the space between its rear walls can accommodate inside the old plumbing out of sight without having to pay for the reconstruction of the same. These solutions are ideal for the renovation of old bathrooms and without sacrificing the beauty of the design.

Plano

La collezione di piatti doccia Plano è composta da 13 piatti doccia altezza 6 cm, il suo design nasce dall'esigenza di unire essenzialità delle forme ed estrema funzionalità. Questi punti fondamentali si riscontrano in due segni, la pendenza della superficie, che permette l'ottimale deflusso dell'acqua, e l'antiscivolo, elemento d'obbligo nella sicurezza dell'utilizzo quotidiano. I due elementi si fondono tra loro, mantenendo ognuno le proprie caratteristiche e garantendo al prodotto una necessaria sobrietà fondamentale per un inserimento in qualsiasi atmosfera contemporanea.

The Plano collection i composed of 13 shower trays, height 6 cm, its design is born from the need to combine simplicity of form and high functionality. These fundamental points are found in two signs, the surface slope, which provides optimal flow of water, and the antislip factor required in daily use. The two elements are blended together, each retaining its own characteristics and giving the product an essential sobriety required for inclusion in any contemporary atmosphere.
